

LANDSCAPE PLAN

11 Denintend Place, South Penrith

Landscape Plan species

Pencil Pine Conifer
Magnolia Grandiflora 'Little Gem' tree
Acacia cognata 'cousin itt'
Senecio
Dwarf mondo grass

Cordyline Australis	 A photograph of a Cordyline Australis plant, also known as a palm lily, featuring long, narrow, reddish-purple leaves that fan out from a central point. The plant is situated outdoors on a lawn next to a wooden fence.
Box hedges	 A photograph of a well-maintained box hedge, showing a dense, uniform row of dark green, small-leaved shrubs.
Potted Ficus Lyrata – Fiddle Leaf Fig	 A photograph of a Potted Ficus Lyrata (Fiddle Leaf Fig) plant with large, heart-shaped, glossy green leaves. The plant is in a white pot and is positioned in front of a large window.
Tristaniopsis Luscious tree	 A photograph of a Tristaniopsis Luscious tree, a small, dense, conical evergreen tree with dark green, rounded leaves. The tree is shown against a plain white background.